Chartered Accountants

Delhi NCR | Dehradun | Roorkee | Mumbai

Who we are?

A legacy of expertise. A perspective for what lies ahead.

HEMANT ARORA & CO. LLP Chartered Accountants (HAC) is a multidisciplinary accounting services firm serving businesses, entrepreneurs, families and institutions across India and internationally.

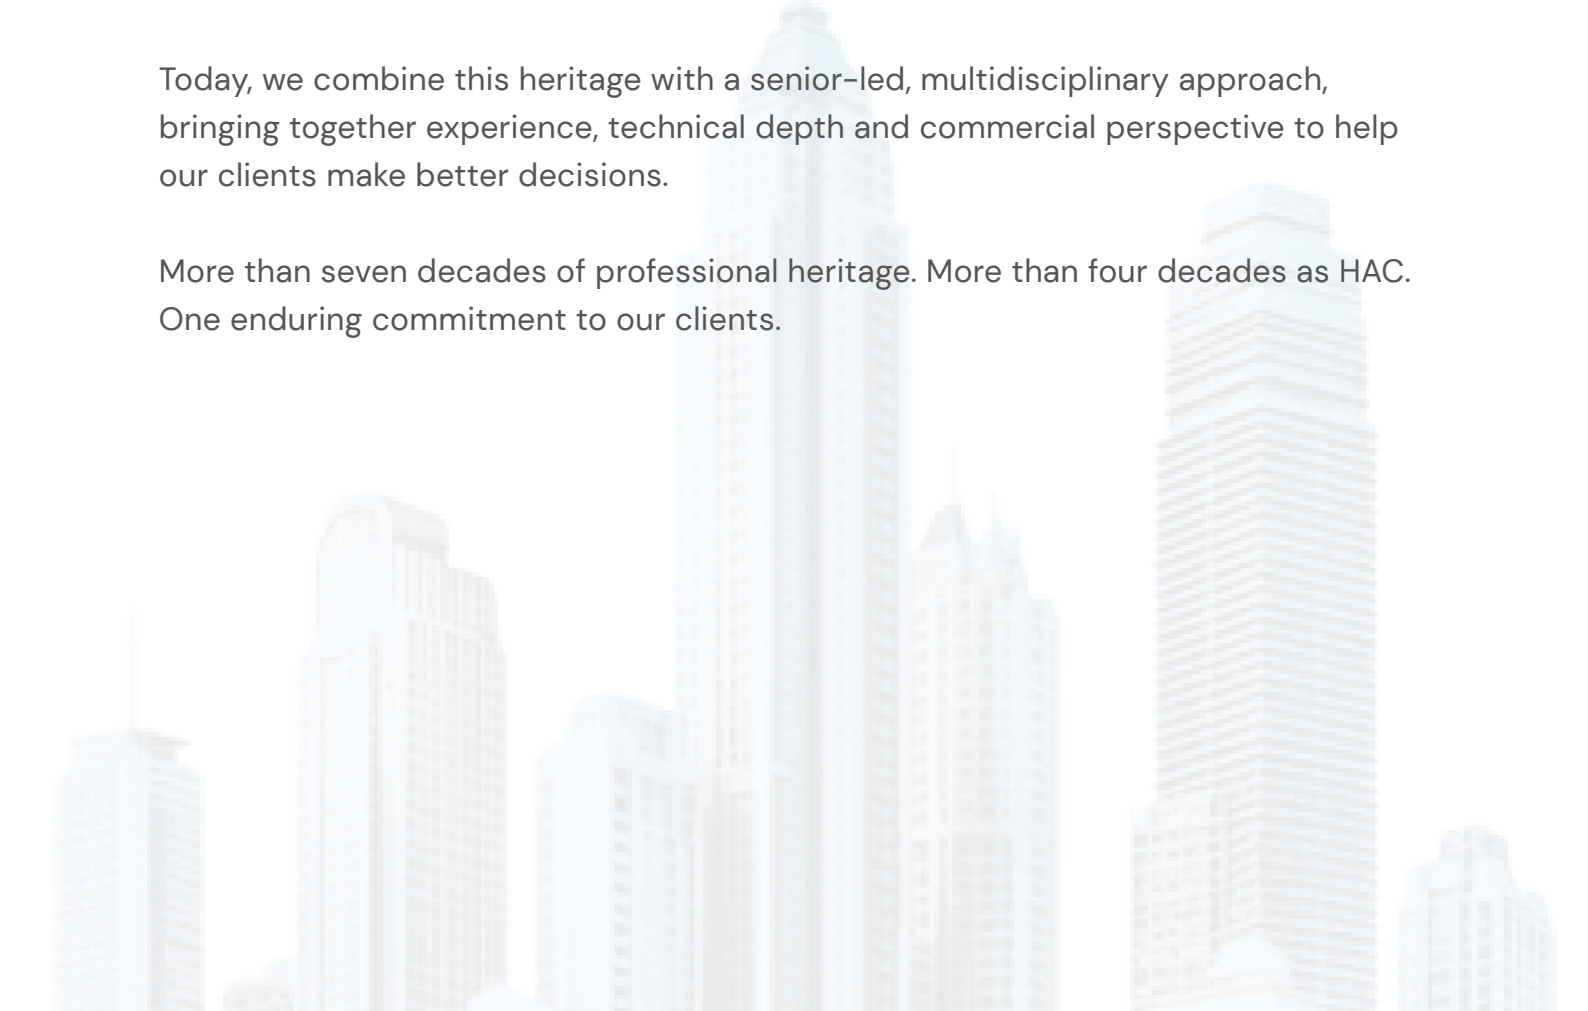

Our professional roots go back to the 1950s, when Shri A. L. Arora, Advocate established A. L. Arora & Associates, a legal and taxation practice in Roorkee.

In 1983, his son, Shri Hemant K. Arora, established Hemant Arora & Co., Chartered Accountants. In 1992, Hemant K. Arora and Jeetan Nagpal came together to establish the partnership firm Hemant Arora & Co., laying the foundations of the firm that stands today.

Over more than four decades, HAC has evolved with the changing needs of businesses—from taxation and accounting to audit & assurance, regulatory, corporate and business advisory.

Today, we combine this heritage with a senior-led, multidisciplinary approach, bringing together experience, technical depth and commercial perspective to help our clients make better decisions.

More than seven decades of professional heritage. More than four decades as HAC. One enduring commitment to our clients.

A firm's true legacy is not measured by its size, but by the confidence it inspires and the relationships it nurtures over generations. That belief has guided HAC since its inception and continues to make every decision we make.

HAC Today

Experience. Expertise. Perspective.

HAC brings together experienced professionals across disciplines to help businesses, entrepreneurs, families and institutions navigate complex financial, tax, regulatory and business decisions.

We work with:

- Promoters and entrepreneurs
- Family-owned and closely held businesses
- Large and mid-sized corporates
- Multinational enterprises
- Financial institutions
- Public sector organisations
- High-net-worth individuals and families
- Institutions and professional organisations

Our approach is deliberately senior-led and personal. Clients have direct access to experienced professionals who understand not only the technical issue, but also the commercial context in which decisions need to be made.

We have built HAC around a simple philosophy: clients deserve direct access to experienced professionals who understand their business and are invested in their success.

Why HAC?

Senior-led. Personally invested.

At HAC, we believe the best professional advice combines technical excellence with judgement, context and perspective. Our clients work directly with experienced professionals who take the time to understand their businesses, anticipate challenges and identify opportunities.

We bring together:

Deep technical expertise

Decades of experience across tax, audit, legal, regulatory and business advisory.

Practical perspective

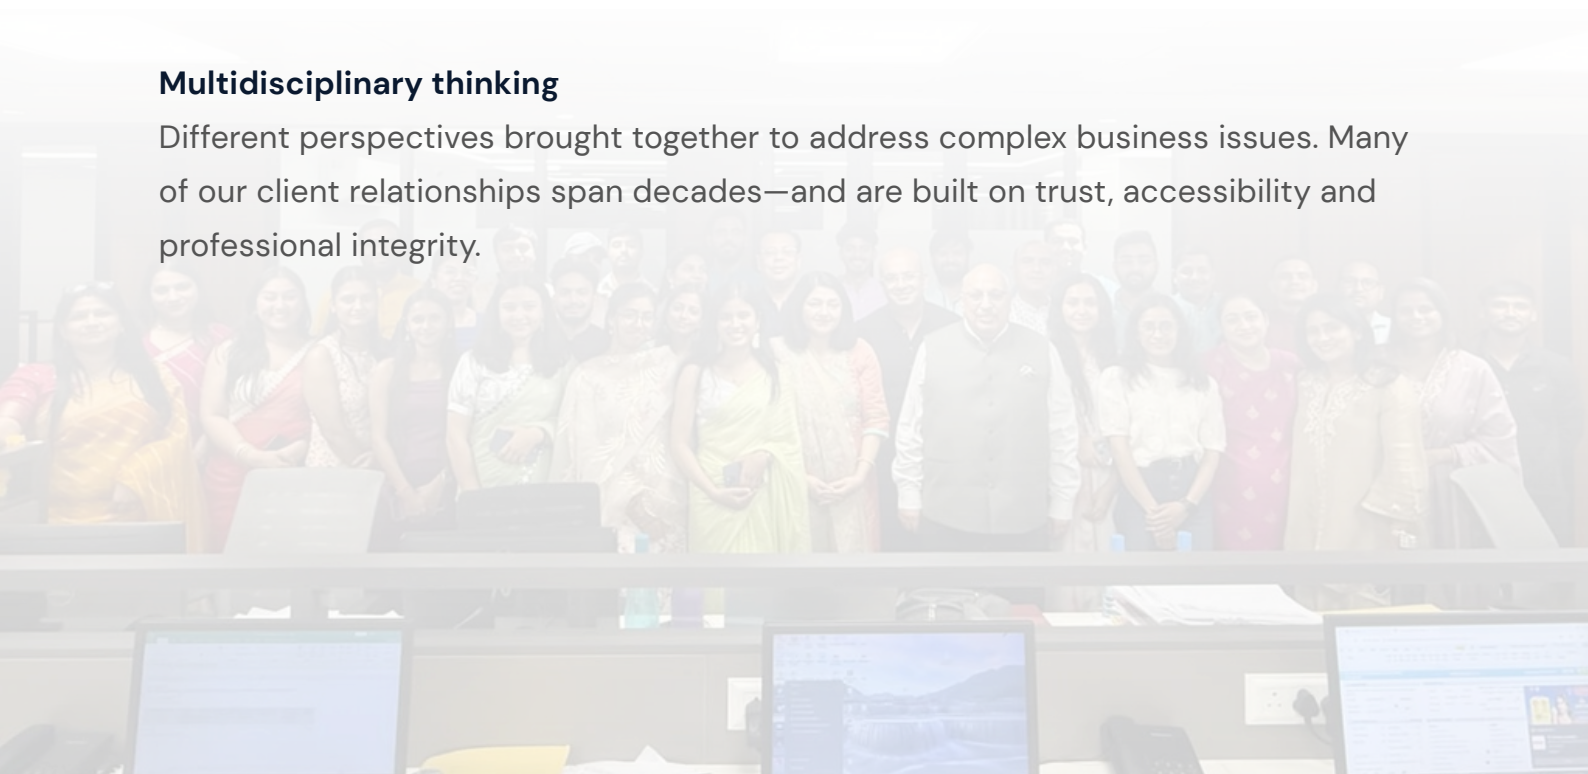

Advice designed not merely to be technically sound, but capable of being implemented.

Senior involvement

Experienced professionals remain closely involved in client relationships and key assignments.

Multidisciplinary thinking

Different perspectives brought together to address complex business issues. Many of our client relationships span decades—and are built on trust, accessibility and professional integrity.

How we work with you

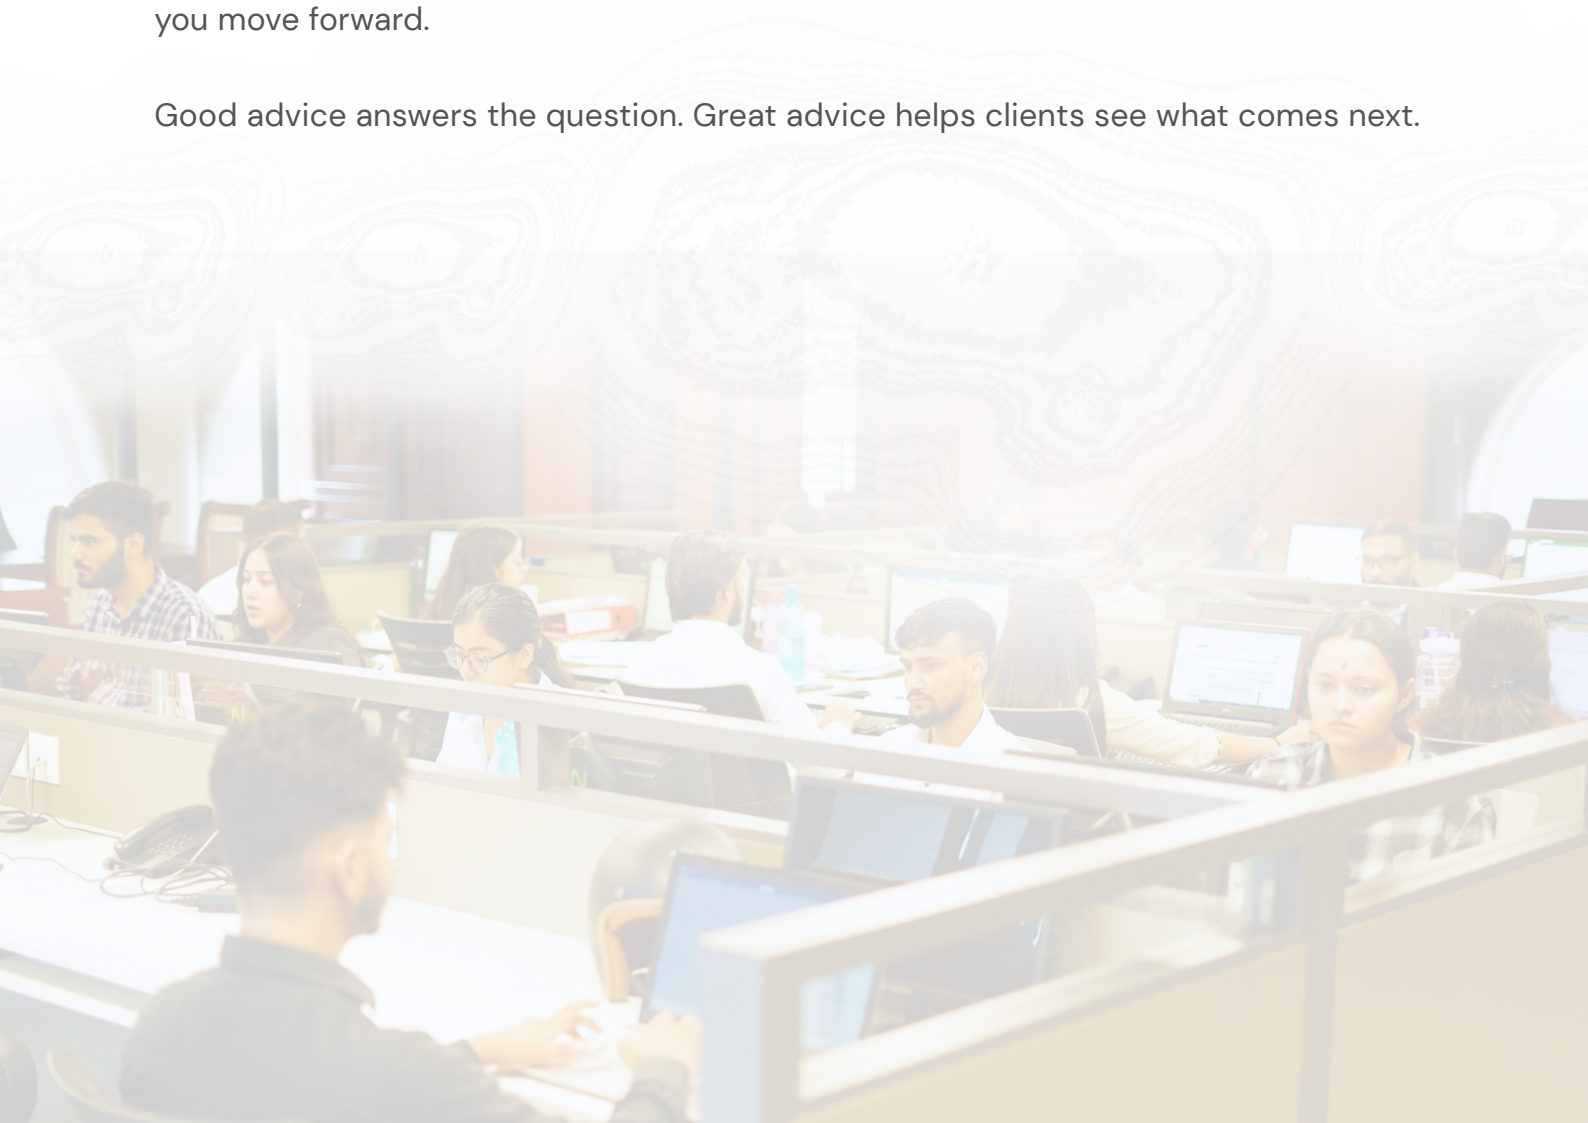

Professional advice works best when it starts with understanding your business.

At HAC, we take the time to understand what matters to you—your business, your ambitions and the challenges you face. We combine technical expertise with commercial perspective to provide advice that is practical, responsive and built around your needs.

Our clients value the accessibility of our senior team and the confidence that comes from having experienced professionals closely involved. Whether you are navigating a complex tax issue, strengthening your financial processes, planning your next stage of growth or managing a regulatory challenge, we work alongside you to find solutions that work in practice.

Our approach is simple: listen carefully, think ahead and provide advice that helps you move forward.

Good advice answers the question. Great advice helps clients see what comes next.

Our People

People make the difference. HAC is built around a broad-based leadership team of experienced professionals across disciplines.
